Families invited to join Seguin PD for Cops-N-Kids Annual Picnic

SEGUIN, Texas – This year the annual Cops-N-Kids Picnic has been postponed twice due to weather. However, organizers did not give up, and the event is set to happen Saturday, August 8th.

“We want to give kids a chance to interact with police officers on a personal level. Many times children only deal with police during negative situations. For example, someone breaks into their home and their parents are upset, or they’re involved in a car accident and somebody is hurt. The Cops-N-Kids Picnic provides us the opportunity to bond with local kids by playing, laughing and having fun on their terms,” said Lt. Mike McCann, Seguin Police Department.

The Cops-N-Kids Picnic is 11 a.m. – 1 P.M. on Saturday in the large pavilion at Max Starcke Park. There will be food, face painting and carnival games. Plus, 85 bicycles will be given away!!! Children ages 2 – 15 years are invited to participate in the fun.

“The police department has been hosting the picnic since 2004. We believe it builds trust between children in this community and police officers. We hope everyone comes out to meet us,” said McCann.
