Seguin Public Library Hosting Several Free Youth Programs in January All Events Free and Open to the Public

SEGUIN, Texas – The Seguin Public Library has a variety of exiting youth programs in the coming weeks. All events are free and open to the public

- Doctor Who Night: Join us Thursday, January 15 at 5 p.m. for a celebration of the Doctor, his companions and his awesomeness. The nerdiness will include duct tape bow ties, Tardis keychains, trivia, prizes and a screening of "The Day of the Doctor!" This program is geared toward teens and tweens, ages 10-17. FREE and open to the public.
- Sensory Storytime is on Saturday, January 17 at 11 a.m. This storytime features interactive books, songs and sensory activities like movement and treasure hunts! It is geared toward children with special needs, their families and friends. All children of all abilities and ages are welcome! This program is FREE and open to the public.
- Crafty Kids is on Tuesday, January 20th at 4 p.m. This month we will make heart garlands and snowflake decorations! This program is geared toward school-aged children, but younger children are welcome with the assistance of adult caregiver. This program is FREE and open to the public.
- Toddler Time is every Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. and is geared toward children ages 12-months to 3-years-old. This program introduces toddlers to stories, songs and playtime with other toddlers.
- Storytime is every Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. This program helps children ages 3 to 5 develop early literacy skills, and includes stories, songs and a craft. This month's stories all feature one color each week!

About the City of Seguin

Seguin, Texas is located along Interstate 10, about 35 miles east of San Antonio. Seguin is big enough to boast a top-rated university and a state-of-the-art hospital. More than 25,000 residents enjoy a range of cultural, recreational and employment opportunities. Seguin's robust diversified economy features a steelmaker, a manufacturer of automotive parts, an engine manufacture and plants making roadside mowing equipment and building materials. In 2014, Seguin was proud to be selected by Siro Group USA as the future home of the company's North American manufacturing facility.
