Mayor Keil asks community to pray for law enforcement

SEGUIN, Texas – “We are all saddened by the events in Dallas last night. A few twisted minds created a despicable horror in which the brave officers who were pledged to protect lives, were themselves the victims of senseless hatred.

What we can do as citizens and human beings is to pray. Pray for the victims and their families. Pray that racial hatred and violence should end in our great country. And pray for the safety of our brave, dedicated police officers who are on the street protecting us every day.

We can also do everything we can to show our appreciation for our brave police officers. If you see a policeman today - or any day, smile, shake their hand, and tell them "thank you" for putting their lives on the line for our safety.” – Mayor Don Keil, City of Seguin.
