Mayor Proclaims National Nurse Practitioner Week November 9-15 Recognizes Dedication of Nurse Practitioners

SEGUIN, Texas – Mayor Don Keil has proclaimed November 9-15 as National Nurse Practitioner Week in the city of Seguin. The proclamation was presented to the Hill Country Advanced Practice Nurses & Physician Assistants Association on November 4.

“Nurse practitioners are a dedicated group of health care professionals who make the health and well-being of the people in their communities a priority,” Mayor Keil said.

According to the American Association of Nurse Practitioners, Nurse Practitioner Week is an opportunity to recognize the more than 192,000 nurse practitioners in the United States who provide high-quality, cost-effective, comprehensive, patient-centered care to patients.

About the City of Seguin

Seguin, Texas is located along Interstate 10, about 35 miles east of San Antonio. Seguin is big enough to boast a top-rated university and a state-of-the-art hospital. More than 25,000 residents enjoy a range of cultural, recreational and employment opportunities. Seguin’s robust diversified economy features a steelmaker, a manufacturer of automotive parts, an engine manufacture and plants making roadside mowing equipment and building materials. In 2014, Seguin was proud to be selected by Siro Group USA as the future home of the company’s North American manufacturing facility.
