Mayor Proclaims November 7 and 8 as Poppy Days American Legion Auxiliary #245 to Distribute Memorial Poppies

SEGUIN, Texas – Mayor Don Keil has proclaimed November 7 and 8 as Poppy Days in the city of Seguin. The proclamation was presented to the American Legion Auxiliary #245 in recognition of their efforts to help memorialize those who have made the ultimate sacrifice in the name of freedom.

“The American Legion Auxiliary’s efforts to honor our brave military men and woman is important,” Keil said. “I encourage the community to pay tribute by wearing the memorial poppy on these two days.”

American Legion Auxiliary #245 volunteers will distribute the memorial poppy November 7 and 8 at Walmart, Arlan’s Market and Pic-n-Pac #8.

About the City of Seguin

Seguin, Texas is located off Interstate 10, about 35 miles east of San Antonio. Seguin is big enough to boast a top-rated university and a state-of-the-art hospital. More than 25,000 residents enjoy a range of cultural, recreational and employment opportunities. Seguin’s robust diversified economy features a steelmaker, a manufacturer of automotive parts, an engine manufacture and plants making roadside mowing equipment and building materials. In 2014, Seguin was proud to be selected by Siro Group USA as the future home of the company’s North American manufacturing facility.
