Mayor Proclaims “Precious Life – Celebration of Life Day” Organization’s Rally to Provide Suicide Prevention Education on March 7

SEGUIN, Texas – Mayor Don Keil has proclaimed Saturday, March 7 as “Precious Life – Celebration of Life Day” in Seguin. The proclamation was presented to the Precious Life Suicide Prevention and Intervention organization on February 17 at City Hall. Representatives from the Seguin Police Department and Guadalupe County Sheriff’s Office gathered in support at the presentation.

“Organizations like Precious Life provide vital suicide prevention education programs while providing support for survivors of suicide loss,” Mayor Keil said. “I encourage the community to support this organization’s upcoming rally.”

Precious Life Suicide Prevention and Intervention will hold its 20th Annual Rally for Life from noon – 2 p.m. on Saturday, March 7 at the Seguin Silver Center. The event will include speakers, provide suicide awareness education, depression warning signs and other important educational information. For more information about the organization or the rally, call (830) 372-5980.

Representatives from Precious Life Suicide Prevention and Intervention, the Seguin Police Department and Guadalupe County Sheriff’s Office join Mayor Don Keil for a proclamation signing designating March 7 as “Precious Life – Celebration of Life Day.”

About the City of Seguin

Seguin, Texas is located along Interstate 10, about 35 miles east of San Antonio. Seguin is big enough to boast a top-rated university and a state-of-the-art hospital. More than 25,000 residents enjoy a range of cultural, recreational and employment opportunities. Seguin’s robust diversified economy features a steelmaker, a manufacturer of automotive parts, an engine manufacture and plants making roadside mowing equipment and building materials. In 2014, Seguin was proud to be selected by Siro Group USA as the future home of the company’s North American manufacturing facility.
