SEGUIN, Texas – The Seguin Commission on the Arts is looking for nominations for an organization or an individual who has had an impact on the art community in Seguin during 2015. “Recognition of individuals or organizations that enrich life in Seguin by bringing cultural and artistic values, events, and artifacts to the City of Seguin is an important role for the Commission on the Arts,” said Commission Chair Kim Schmitt, “The arts positively impact our community and it is imperative that we recognize those making the impact.”
