Younger kids & homeschoolers are the focus of September library activities

SEGUIN, Texas – While many children are back in school, parents who homeschool or have toddlers and pre-school are kids will still find opportunities to have fun at the library this month.

“We want the library for families to get out of the house, and experience something new. Especially if you’re on a budget like most parents,” said Hannah Farmer, Youth Services Librarian.

➤ Toddler Time; every Tuesday @ 9:30 A.M.

Toddlers enjoy age-appropriate songs, playtime; develop early literacy skills. Age 9 months to 36 months

➤ Storytime every Wednesday @ 10:30 A.M.

Children listen to stories, sing songs and do a craft; build literacy and school readiness. Ages 3-5

➤ LEGO Club: Wednesday, Sept. 9 @ 4 P.M.

We bring the lego bricks, you bring the creativity! Ages 6 and up; Duplo block are available for younger siblings ➤ Homeschool Hangout: Monday, Sept. 14 @ 2 P.M.

Homeschool families are invited to the library where will explore new topics every month. This month, we’re making a science toy.

➤ Crafty Kids: Wednesday, Sept. 16 @ 4 P.M.

Come make a fall tree craft using paint and other art supplies. Ages 5 and up

➤ Kids Discover: Tuesday, Sept. 22 @ 4:30 P.M.
