Spring Trade Days Set for April 26

Event in Conjunction with Earth Day Festival

SEGUIN, Texas – Seguin Central Park will again thrive with Spring Trade Days on Saturday, April 26. The event is expected to attract hundreds of people to Downtown Seguin.

“This is a great opportunity to come take advantage of the beauty of Central Park,” Seguin Public Information Officer Scott Packard said. “Not only that, there is plenty to see and do. It’s going to be a great family atmosphere.”

Handmade and new arts, crafts, jewelry, clothing, decorative and other unique items will be for sale at dozens of vendor booths. Come hungry because there will also be food booths and entertainment. Saxophonist Joseph Williams takes the stage from 2-3pm. The event starts at 9am and wraps up at 4pm. There is no charge to attend.

Spring Trade Days is being held in conjunction with the Seguin Earth Day Festival. Both events are free to attend. “Mr. Habitat” will perform during the Earth Day Festival, which starts at 9am and ends at 2pm.

Seguin's Central Park Courthouse Square is located at 201 S. Austin Street. For more information, visit www.visitseguin.com.

About the City of Seguin

Seguin, Texas is located along Interstate 10, about 35 miles east of San Antonio. Seguin is big enough to boast a top-rated university and a state-of-the-art hospital. More than 25,000 residents enjoy a range of cultural, recreational, and employment opportunities. Seguin's robust diversified economy features a steelmaker, a manufacturer of automotive parts and plants making roadside mowing equipment and building materials. In 2009, Seguin was proud to be selected by Caterpillar as the site of a major new engine manufacturing facility.
