SEGUIN, Texas – The City of Seguin Employee Advisory Committee is pleased to announce Olivia DeLeon as October 2014 Employee of the Month.

Olivia is being recognized for her extraordinary work coordinating the city’s recycling program. She is also being recognized for taking on the task of organizing vendors for the city’s recent employee wellness expo.

“Even though she was not a member of the sub-committee, she willingly took on the task,” Employee Wellness Expo Committee Chair Rene Porras said in her nomination letter. “Her assistance to the committee was instrumental in making this a successful event.”

Olivia has been employed with the City of Seguin since July 2012 and currently holds the position of Utilities Assistant. The City of Seguin congratulates Olivia on a job well done!
